Own a colorful slice of Santa Fe History!

Randall Davey, the celebrated artist who painted in Santa Fe from 1919 to 1964, created "Derby Day" in his studio here 55 years ago. The winning bidder and nine friends will enjoy a private tour of Davey's home, now on the leafy grounds of the Randall Davey Audubon Center and when the tour group enters the Davey studio, the new owner will collect the historic painting from the very easel where it was painted! Finally, to cap a truly memorable day, the lucky group will enjoy wine and cheese in the small orchard where Davey is buried which commands one of the best views in Santa Fe.
