Dear Parishioners,

We are not completely immobile to welcome Jesus this Holy Week into your homes for Palm Sunday and His Last Supper. I would like you to decorate your homes with palms. Be creative. Send us a picture of your front door/front gate decorations and you may win a prize. You have the whole of Holy Week to do it until Easter Sunday. Here are a few examples.

All the very best to all of you. We are keeping all of you in our prayers and masses this Holy Week. I look forward to welcoming you back soon. Stay tuned for what we have in store for you. Celebrate we must!

Have a prayerful and blessed Holy Week!
