

Mattie Furphy House, next to Tom Collins House, HQ of the Fellowship of Australian Writers (WA).

Front verandah, Mattie Furphy House, readying for a party on a summer's afternoon.

Inside Mattie Furphy House. Note photos of John K. Ewers, Gerry Glaskin and Henrietta Drake-Brockman.

Relaxing before the event. From left: Patsy Millett, JB, Hamish & Trisha Kotai-Ewers.

Paul Genoni (Curtin University) reading remarks from Monash University Publishing director, Nathan Hollier.

Trisha Kotai-Ewers introducing the speakers. Back row left are Roland (bright shirt) and Llew Glaskin.

Rae Kean giving a personal take on Gerry Glaskin.

Wayne and Ann Glaskin viewing proceedings from the entry lobby.

JB making a point as he tells one of his favourite GMG anecdotes.

An attentive audience both inside and outside the main room.

Tom Collins House, adjacent to Mattie Furphy House, a link with Australia's literary past.

JB and Christine Nagel, Gerry's last agent at a cafe in Mundaring in the Perth hills.