CALL TO GATHER

“Where Everybody Knows”

Portnoy & Angelo

*CALL TO WORSHIP

L: Lord, we know that You know each of us intimately. You call us and seek to give us a new name.

P: But Lord, even when we decide to follow you, we sometimes hide it, rejecting not only our calling, but the wholeness and fellowship we so desperately crave from You as well as from our sisters and brothers.

L: And so, Lord, we come to this place where we are known by You and one another, seeking to live up to, to serve up to the name You have named us, Christian, Christ-Follower, Child of God.

P: May we live up to our new name by sharing confidence, joyfulness, and faithfulness with the world, and being known as those who seek Your face.

ALL: Amen.

*HYMN

*GOING FORTH

L: Lord Jesus, in You we recognize who we can be: Recklessly loving, abundantly forgiving, and limitlessly free.

P: Thank You for calling us by Your name again this day.

L: Just when we feel we're alone and abandoned, Just when we feel that life is full of pain and emptiness and meaninglessness,

P: You call us again, by our name again.

L: Thank You for giving us a name to remind us whose we are. Thank You for giving us a name that reminds us who we are.

P: And thank You for giving us a name that reminds us of how we should be. Amen
