

TO YOU OUR FRIENDS... BRETT & KEVIN ALWAYS IN OUR MEMORIES

BRETT L. JONES

...epitomized the type of person and player that every CATS member wants on their club. He came with a fresh mind and body, ready and willing to conquer the challenges that rugby demands, both on and off the pitch. During the course of three seasons with the club, his mental attitude and physical prowess matured. At first Brett didn't know where to run or why he was chasing the ball, but to him it didn't seem to matter. The grit and boundless energy he showed on the field was contagious. All you usually saw of him was the back of his #5 jersey as he raced off to reach the ball. And showing his true class, he often helped opponents to their feet. It was just a game to him, but one worthy of his devotion. In memory of its first recipient and the heart that he showed, his name shall forever accompany the club's award for...

ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR

KEVIN D. SOPKO

..was only in the midst of his first season with the CATS and already he was turning heads. In this short time, he exemplified the qualities of a devoted club member. Although destined to play plenty of "A" matches, he patiently awaited his opportunity in the "B" contests. But instead of gripes or complaints, he performed with passion and a propensity to succeed. To him, it was cool just being out there enjoying a tough, physical, contact sport. Kevin was proud and excited to be part of the team and this club. Luckily, that pride never soured into conceit. Upon leaving the pitch after games or practices, he always volunteered to help carry a bag, "gopher" something or do some other tiny, thankless task. In remembrance of his endearing style, camaraderie, and friendship, his name shall always honorably adorne the club's....
