Jimmy's all new Legends & Laughter show is a comedic musical journey thru some of Jimmy's favorite songs by a wide variety of performers ranging from the classics to today's contemporary artists. Jimmy's high energy and enthusiasm is tempered only by his ultra smooth vocals as he creates his vocal impressions of Johnny Cash, Rod Stewart, The Bee Gees, Frankie Valli, Neil Diamond, Tom Jones, Englebert Humperdinck, Barry White, Tony Orlando and more, adding the crooning voices of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Bobby Darin and Nat King Cole surrounding them all with funny stories and antics including the voices of Arnold Schwarzenegger, Clint Eastwood, Sylvester Stallone, Ed Sullivan, Bill Clinton and Ronald Reagan. Then he quickly moves on to glide thru the voices of greats like The Beatles, Elton John, Joe Cocker, Lou Rawls, The Temptations and Tony Bennett just to name a few. Yes, he'll focus on "The King", Elvis Presley with a very amusing parody, but keeps on moving as he belts out the hits of Billy Joel, Michael Buble', Ray Charles, Louis Armstrong, Jimmy Durante', Stevie Wonder, Celine Dion and Barry Manilow and many more. Never the same show twice; this is a must see show!

TRICIA KELLY

at Heritage Oak Park

Tricia Kelly, a Boston native - After some local success opening for KC & The Sunshine Band with her original music (Keep On Movin'), she moved to Los Angeles to further pursue her artistic endeavors. Her first big gig in LA was with Bill Medley of the Righteous Brothers in

"50 Years of Rock & Roll" and honored to duet with him on his recent tour singing "I've Had

The Time Of My Life". Indeed, Tricia has had just that: The time of her life performing for audiences on cruise ships to the Troops in Iraq and everywhere in between. Blending a wide range of vocals (from Janis Joplin to Julie Andrews!), a little dose of comedy and vocal impressions this show will move you and get you laughing, clapping and singing along!
