

Poems of the Sacramento Area

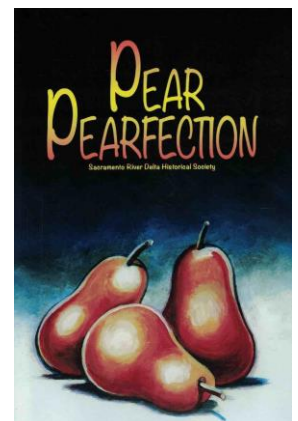

Sacramento River Delta Historical Society General Meeting
Tuesday, November 21st at 7:00 PM
Jean Harvie Center 14273 River Road, Walnut Grove

Local resident of Locke, D.R. Wagner a renowned poet will present a program on poems that have put Sacramento poetry and poets on the map. He will give some history to poetic writings of the region along with some readings of local poems. D.R. is the author of over twenty books and chapbooks of poetry and letters. He has founded numerous press productions and produced over fifty magazines and chapbooks. He has read with many famous people and poets over the last 40 plus years. He also is a visual artist, professional musician and teacher design plus teaching in the Honors program at the University of California at Davis. This will be an exciting program. This program is free to all.

Don't pass up the opportunity to purchase our latest collectable 2018 Pear Label, Pear Perfection Cookbook and past year's calendars at the meeting.

For Info please call Tom at (916) 871-4060 or e-mail: srdhshs@gmail.com .