Dear Hiring Committee:

Please consider this cover letter and Curriculum Vitae as a framework to share with your hiring committee accordingly. I bring a record of excellence and experience throughout my career in higher education (academic affairs, admissions, career services), human resources (recruiting, on-boarding, training, management), and financial services (investment planning), in addition to owning a small business focused on student academic, career, and leadership development.

Additionally, I have combined my passion for higher education and human resource development with a concrete knowledge base in classroom and online teaching, industry influence, training and development, and process management to solve complex problems and support effective organizational structures wherever I have worked.

Below I list a myriad of additional experiences, which show the wide variety of transferable skills and experiences that I bring to the table:

- ✓ Served as Interim Director of Academic Administration and Student Affairs at George Washington University Graduate School of Political Management, overseeing the project management of course scheduling, facilitated on-boarding and management of 50+ faculty, coordinated student evaluations, processed final grade reports (≥500 students), supported classroom management of 50+ classes per term insuring proper faculty placement, performed transcript evaluations and partnered with admissions to streamline accuracy, tracked scholarship budget funds of $100k+ and attended recruitment fairs (including out of state) to attract prospective students.
- ✓ Served as the Academic Consultant for the Undergraduate Leadership Program at Northeastern University, conducted preliminary assessments and review of previous curriculum, established a communication mechanism with all adjunct faculty, engaged in dialogue around pre-requisites, suggested and pitched new course names, charted the equivalency between quarter-based courses and the new semester-based curriculum, crafted new descriptions for each course, created new template syllabus, suggested new text selections, and drafted in-class assignments.
- ✓ Am an experienced Human Resources Consultant, Human Resources Manager and Assistant Human Resource Manager having overseen staff recruiting, training and development, supervision, planning and logistics, customer service; achieved new hire compliance targets of 100%, budget management in the six figures, alongside various administrative tasks.
- ✓ Currently serving as a Senior Fellow for the American Leadership & Policy Foundation (ALPF) collaborating with other scholars to develop leaders and public servants whose commitment to America's citizens transcends special interests and parties; with former experience serving as Director of Fellowships helping to interview and onboard new fellows.
- ✓ Served on the board of directors of two non-profit organizations, in which capacity I supported fundraising (Dimock Community Health Center, YWCA – Greater Rhode Island) and organizational initiatives; in addition, as part of an IRB (Institutional Review Board) for the health center, I evaluated management decisions on patient research, staff hiring, and community impact.
- ✓ As part of a team of four, designed a mentoring program for students interested in consulting careers (Partners: Faculty/Alumni, Oliver Wyman, BCG, McKinsey, Bain, and Deloitte) created at Boston University School of Management.

- ✓ Advised student-led organizations within the areas of event planning, outreach and student / staff inclusion for: ALPFA (Latino Professionals), NABA (Black Accountants), Black MBA, NSBE (Black Engineers), NAAAP (Asian Professionals), MAPS (Pre-Med Minorities), LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender), MLT (Management Leadership for Tomorrow) International Student Organizations, and Native American Students using online communities (Facebook, Twitter, Google+, Yahoo Groups, LinkedIn etc.).
- ✓ Provided continuing education consulting for mid-senior level executives at EMD Serono, the biopharmaceutical division of Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, a global pharmaceutical and chemical group contracted by EnCompass Education LLC.
- ✓ Experienced in travel abroad to locations such as: Mexico, Morocco, Jamaica, Bahamas, and served as a Goodwill Ambassador for The Gambia, West Africa providing mentorship to students and actively supporting the collection of books and learning tools; in addition to fundraising for a local village library with a group of 50 women mobilized to bring about change.

If invited to serve your institution in coaching, consulting or as part-time instructor, you would gain a highly analytical and collaborative leader who routinely keeps abreast of evidence-based research, relevant policy, and theoretical best-practice; also a pleasant colleague who believes there is always room for improvement.

I look forward to offering these skills and experiences to your institution and hope to have the opportunity to speak with you further. My enclosed CV provides additional details concerning my professional expertise. Please feel free to call me at 1-202-400-2562 (mobile) or email: NataschaSaunders@gmail.com should you like to speak further.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Natascha F. Saunders

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write to you to provide my highest recommendation on behalf of Natascha Saunders. I strongly feel that Natascha possesses the knowledge, skills, and attitude necessary to excel within your organization. She is not only an excellent instructor, but an excellent colleague, as well.

As Natascha's program manager in the College of Professional Studies at Northeastern University, I have worked with her for the past year and a half. Over this time, she has provided outstanding instruction in multiple leadership courses including Assessing and Building Leadership Capacity, Evidence Based Leadership and Decision Making, and Leadership Practicum, among others. Overall, she has successfully taught dozens of courses within the College of Professional Studies over the past five years. In each of her courses, she receives student evaluations that regularly surpass our means and many times, are ranked among our highest instructors. Numerous students regard Natascha as a great communicator that helps them understand course concepts easily and provides helpful and timely feedback. This is especially impressive as she teaches across numerous formats such as on-ground face to face, blended, and online, and teaches a variety of student populations including working adults and international students.

In addition to her exceptional work in the classroom, Natascha is a pleasure to work with from an administrative standpoint, as well. She responds promptly and positively when I offer course assignments and review course syllabi. She also provides useful feedback about her courses and is always proactive if there are any student issues throughout the term. I highly recommend Natascha for this position.

Sincerely,

Cory Domina

Former, Undergraduate Program Manager
College of Professional Studies, Northeastern University
Current, Manager Employer Relations, Experiential Network

"It is difficult to get from theory to execution, and Ms. Saunders has the most eloquent way of getting you there. Always positive, professional, and personable."
