

It's So Nice Here In The Pew

William Flanders

1. Let's leave the fun - nies in the lurch and mo - sey o - ver to the
2. Now we don't mind a lit - tle zeal___ from the cler - gy, for they
3. And now to those who stay in bed,___ let us say, "Rise from the church, the sa - cred hour's ap - proach - ing fast, we'd bet - ter shove.

feel this is their on - ly chance to bring us back from hell.
dead!___ Come to church and join our faith - ful lit - tle crew.

We have been world - ly and our souls are bound to be chock full of
But please then spare us stead - y dos - es of so - ci - e - ty's neu - Hey, it's a step you won't re - gret, and it just might make you for - holes, they could use a lit - tle plug - ging up with love.

ro - ses, such re - al - i - ties might cause us to re - bel!
get___ all those trou - bles that last night were bug - ging you."

Refrain

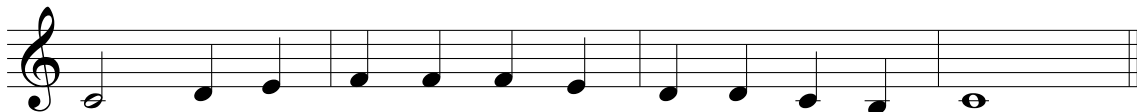

It's so nice here in the pew, where there's noth - ing much to do. If we want we'll get an hour's worth for free.

To the mu - sic and the prayers we can whit - tle 'way our cares, and to - geth - er dwell in sweet e - ter - ni - ty.