

Mabalingwe Nature Reserve

Limpopo Province, LMP South Africa

Wild game, prolific birdlife and a number of dams are special features of this 30,888-acre nature conservation reserve in the Bela-Bela district. Enjoy superb views from the patio of your self-catering chalet, or admire the Bushveld from the Tshukudu Restaurant or Ladies Bar. Complete your Big Five African Experience by viewing our newly acquired lions.

- From Johannesburg International airport take the R21 towards Pretoria. Then take the N1 North to Pietersburg. Take the Warmbaths turnoff and at the T-junction leading into Warmbaths turn right and continue over the railway bridge. Turn left into the first road and follow the 90 degree bend. Turn left into Voortrekker Road. At the traffic circle turn left onto the Thabazimbi/Rooiberg road(R516). Travel 27kms along this road and the resort is on the right. From the 1st of July 2004 the gate fee will go up to a R100,00 from the second vehicle.
