Time is a Gift

I announced last weekend at all the Masses that I will be leaving Sacred Heart and St. Joseph Parishes and begin a new parish assignment on Wednesday July 1. I will not know what that parish will be for up to 2-3 months. The Priest Personnel board sends out a list of open parishes (through retirements, end of terms, etc.) that priests can apply for if they are interested. Those parishes are filled then another round of open parishes is sent out until all the open parishes are filled.

I thank all of you who shared such kind words when you found out I was leaving. I was moved and appreciated it. My last weekend of Masses will be June 27/28. We still have five months together so I wanted to share with you some of the events we will be sharing in for the months to come:

1. Bible Study
2. Lent and Easter! Including Mission Sunday on March 22-
3. Details coming!
4. Evening Holy Hours
5. First Communion Masses
6. Divine Mercy Sunday
7. St. Joseph School Auction
8. May Crowning
9. Eighth Grade Graduation
10. Memorial Day Masses at the Cemeteries
10. Parish Feast Days

Time is a precious gift and good-byes can be very difficult, but God always remains! Remember that as all of us enter a time of transition.

Thanks, and God Bless!!!

Fr. Chris
