

NICOLE MAKI

Nicole Maki is the daughter of Michelle and Jeff Maki. She is a 2017 graduate of Baraga High School. Nicole is a member of National Honor Society's Phoenix Chapter, was the Vice President of Students Against Destructive Decisions, and has participated in bowling along with community service activities including cleaning up the highway, visiting nursing homes, walking dogs for the Humane Society, teaching others the dangers of smoking, drinking and driving, and showing elementary kids the dangers of bullying. She created bags for shelter kids, which were filled with books, playing cards and a stuffed animal. Nicole also volunteers with the Baraga Fire Department, helping at Christmas time and during the 4th of July. In her free time she studies, babysits, and trains her dogs. Nicole is sponsored by Wilkinson's General Store.
