Treasurer's Report: Presented by Doug Kilbourne

Doug gave a report of deposits and expenses.

Motion was made to accept the balances report by Max Marion & 2nd Jim Stevens; motion carried

OLD BUSINESS:

- RoundTown Carfest Car Show:

- Board canceled this show due to the high cost of special liability insurance that the City of Circleville required and the slow approval process to get the location approved.

- Cruise-in:

- Members turned in door prizes they collected at tonight's meeting.
- Jim Deal spoke about the basics and said we would just have to wing it and see what needs addressed for the next event. Jim asked members to show up at 4:30pm to help set-up.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Motts Car Show:

- Ken Smith and a couple of other members from the Ohio Patriot Group talked about a car show at the Motts Military Museum on September 9th. He talked about the expansion of the museum and all proceeds go to Motts Foundation. The Patriot group will get sponsors and purchase the awards and there is free admission to the museum that day. They asked our members to help pass out flyers, direct cars and anything else we could do to help.
 - Motion made by Larry Lewis to help with the show, 2nd by Doug Kilbourne, motion carried.
 - Tim Arledge said Black Sky Productions would provide the music free of charge
 - Jim Deal committed to having some members available to help park cars and sell 50/50 tickets. Additionally we help pass out flyers at our cruise-in's.

- Guest Speaker Suggested:

Glenn Metzler has a friend that does presentations on Henry Ford with five different topics available. Glenn asked if we were interested in having him in to speak, these normally last about 1-1/2 hours. A motion was made by Jim Deal to have him speak, seconded by Dale Boone; Motion carried. Glenn will check to see what date he can come. We will not have a board meeting that meeting and start the club meeting at 6:00pm, to accommodate the longer time needed. The topic will be the Columbus Ford Plant.

- Club Night Out:

- This is our Memorial Cruise to honor members that have passed away. On May 20th, we will go to Mount Victory Plaza Inn | Leave from Renick's Market in South Bloomfield at 4:30pm., be early. Head count was 18.

Motion to Adjourn: by; Greg Myers and seconded by Bob Wolfe; Passed
