

Here at Last: 2017 Pecos Conference Schedule and Info for Attendees

SANTA FE, N.M.--August 4, 2017--It's finally here! The 2017 Pecos Conference starts Thursday, August 10, and we've got the schedule and all the information you will need as an attendee.

First, we have the Presentation Schedule, which is available as a downloadable PDF file. Click on Presentation Schedule to get the file.

We also have a sheet of important information for all attendees, including all you need to know about the site, camping, food and water, fires, etc. To the Information Sheet, click here.

Further, you now can click for a list of the site tours.

And, to make it easier to find your way around, we have created a detailed map of the conference site on Rowe Mesa.

The conference will begin with the traditional Thursday evening reception 5-7 p.m. at the Museum Hill Cafe, on the grounds of the Laboratory of Anthropology at 710 Camino Lejo, Santa Fe, N.M.

And, while we have your attention, we just want to say, don't forget to bring any items that you might want to contribute to the silent auction. It will raise money for the Cordell-Powers Prize so, hopefully, we can make it even more generous in the future.

We're ready and can't wait to see you next Thursday in Santa Fe and for the weekend on Rowe Mesa!
