

Jason Graae has been featured as Njegus twice with LA Opera, Houston Grand Opera, Dallas Opera, New Orleans Opera & Michigan Opera Theatre, where he was nominated for an Oscar Wilde Award. Jason played Frosch in Die Fledermaus with San Francisco & Washington National Operas, Houston Grand Opera & the Manhattan School of Music, & played Offenbach with LA Opera in Garry Marshall's revamped version of The Grand Duchess of Gerolstein. Jason has been featured on & off Broadway a lot. He was the original Sparky in Forever Plaid, & Houdini in the US Premiere of Ragtime, & was nominated for a Drama Desk Award for his role in Hello, Muddah, Hello, Fadduh. He recently won the LA Drama Critics Circle Award for his contributions in musical theatre in LA. For his one man show, & his show with Faith Prince, he won 4 Bistros & 2 NY Nightlife Awards. He's been a guest & series regular on TV too, & was even the voice of the Leprechaun for Lucky Charms. He has over 55 recordings, including Original Cast, studio, & 3 solo CDs.