

Myers, James C.

James C. Myers, 76, died Wednesday evening, May 25, 2005, at his home following a 19-year-long illness. He was born October 16, 1928 in Sebewaing, son of the late Elmer and Alice (Thede) Myers. He was united in marriage to Jean A. Kleinfeld on December 5, 1948 in Sebewaing. Jim had been a merchant marine on the Great Lakes and was later employed at the Sebewaing Brewery for 14 years and then for General Motors Grey Iron Foundry in Saginaw for 23 years before retiring due to disability in 1988. He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, former member of the Sebewaing Jaycees. He enjoyed hunting and fishing. He is survived by his wife, Jean; one daughter, Crystal Gaeth and her husband, Neil; one son, Scott Myers and his wife, Tari, all of Sebewaing; and seven grandchildren. He was preceded in death by infant sister, Peggy Ruth Myers; and one daughter, Peggy Schulz. The funeral service will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 28, 2005, at Immanuel Lutheran Church. The Rev. Daniel Hahn will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from noon to 9 p.m. today at Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing. He will lie in state from 10 a.m. until the time of service on Saturday at the church. Memorials may be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church, USA Grand Piano Fund, or the charity of the donor's choice.
