

Olie N. Walker Jr. OlieWalkerJr@yahoo.com Marketing was created by Olie N. Walker Jr. after a long journey of marketing and promoting a wide variety of products and services for businesses and organizations small and large. Mr. Walker received his Bachelor's of Science degree in Marketing in 1991 from Hampton University. As a Marketing Consultant, he has more than twenty years of experience working directly with businesses and organizations.

During his career, Mr. Walker has held a broad range of professional responsibilities, including brand management, logo development and promotions, as well as social media management and product placement. His experiences also include business-to-business account management and loyalty rewards programs. As a lifelong student of marketing with an eye for detail, Mr. Walker is always looking for innovative ways to increase his clients' brand awareness. Mr. Walker brings over twenty years of business expertise and creative know how to any marketing project or team.