A county consolidation bill introduced this week in the Kansas Senate contains a plan that would join Reno County with Barber, Harper, Kingman, and Pratt counties.

The only current counties that would remain stand-alone counties, under the plan to reduce 105 counties to 23, would be: Butler, Douglas, Johnson, Sedgwick, Shawnee, Leavenworth and Wyandotte.

Kudos & Congratulations Lawrence Voht!
 Lawrence Voht retired after 40 years of service at Promise Reg. Med. Ctr. Voht began his employment as director of Inhalation Therapy (now Respiratory Therapy) in 1971 and transitioned out of the director role into a part-time position in 2002, where he had served until his retirement late January 2011.
 Not only did Voht over see Respiratory Therapy, but also Sleep, Echocardiography, EKG and EEG. He was quite active in the creation and promotion of what is now Health-E-Quip. Also impressive is Voht's perfect attendance record. He never took a sick day in 40 years!
 Kudo & Happy Retirement Lawrence!
 Lawrence is a very avid gardner and enjoys canning his produce too. He hopes to spend more time with family, travels & fishing too! ☺
