

Are proud to present an illustrated Zoom Lecture on

Vivant Denon: A Gentleman and a Scholar

- Date: Saturday, December 4th at 2pm
The lecture lasts approximately 2 hours including a break.
- Speaker: Lee Young
- Location: Zoom Meeting
- Admission: Free to Members, (a Zoom link will be sent out Friday evening via email)
- Topic: Vivant Denon: A Gentleman and a Scholar.

This will tell the story of the Napoleonic campaign in Egypt as seen and recorded through the eyes of Vivant Denon, the artist who kept a comprehensive journal of his time in Egypt. He noted the trials and tribulations of the campaign but also the considerable highs as they first set eyes on the monuments.

Lee Young: Lee is an independent researcher and lecturer who has been working, for a few years now, as a research volunteer, for The Griffith Institute Archive which is part of Oxford University. She has also worked on a project for the Egyptian Exploration Society. Lee is the Author of An Artist in Abydos: The Life and Letters of Myrtle Broome.

Please see our website www.egyptology-ssae.org for further details.

Email us at egyptologyssae@gmail.com

Or give us a call on 01246 276771 or 0115 9235912