Easter Up Close

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.

1 Corinthians 15:3,4

It may be easy to dismiss Easter at a distance. When Easter is a faraway object, it may be easy to label it as a fanciful story with lots of drama and a happy ending.

But to confront Easter up close is to wrestle with some pretty stubborn facts. The facts are these: By late Friday afternoon, Jesus of Nazareth was dead. A Roman soldier pierced His corpse to confirm it. The centurion in charge of Jesus' crucifixion reported His death to Pontius Pilate. With Jesus' execution complete, Pilate gave the body over to people who took it down from the cross and who buried it in a nearby tomb. Jesus' disciples, paralyzed by fear and grief, kept themselves behind locked doors and did nothing.

Then, on Easter Sunday, something happened; something so extraordinary that it transformed Jesus' disciples forever. It transformed these men from hiding in terror to men willing to spend the rest of their lives facing persecution, prison, and death just so they could tell others about Jesus.

The transformation of Jesus' disciples is a matter of record. One day they were cowering in a locked room, grieving the death of their Master. The next they were changed men, men who possessed a bold, resilient courage no one would ever take away.

Let's face it. A room full of terrified men does not suddenly change into lifelong courageous men based on some collective whim or wishful thought.

We know what happened. The Bible gives the account. Jesus had been dead and buried, sacrificed to pay for all sins of all people of all time. Then He rose from the dead to prove that His payment for sin was accepted and that He had conquered death for everyone who puts their faith in Him.

That one stubborn fact has been changing hearts and lives ever since.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, bring me up close to the reality of Easter. You were dead, and now You live. Empower me with Your Spirit. Let Your resurrection refresh my courage to live for You. Amen.

Communion will be held the 2nd, 4th, and 5th (if it occurs) Sundays.

You may worship at any of these locations. Pastors Brandt, Schupmann, Rieke, and Vicar Walsh will be rotating at all of these sights all summer long. The worship will be the same at all three locations. Please use your church offering envelopes or make sure your check is written to either Salem or St. John's as offerings will be given to your "home" church no matter what location you worship at.

Pastor Mark Rieke was called as a 1/4 time vacancy pastor to serve Salem. Pastor Mark Rieke will be here until Sunday, July 28th. Mr. Timothy Walsh will be St. John's summer Vicar.

On Sunday, June 2nd, at 8:30 A.M., there will be a special joint worship service for the installation of Mr. Timothy Walsh. There will be no worship in Lowell on June 2nd.

Vicar Walsh will serve at St. John's from May 27th to August 11th.

Vicar Walsh is a second-year student at Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary and lives in Watertown. He, his wife, Ruth, and their daughter Eliana were most recently members at Trinity, Waukesha, where Tim worked as a part-time evangelist and English teacher in their Hispanic outreach ministry. Ruth and Tim are both graduates of Martin Luther College. Tim grew up in Clearwater, Florida, and Ruth, in Malawi, Africa, where her father was a WELS missionary.

Vicar Timothy, Ruth & Eliana

Pastor Mark Rieke was born and raised in Tomah, Wisconsin. He attended Lutheran elementary school in Tomah and high school at Luther High School in Onalaska. After graduating from Northwestern College in Watertown, he attended Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary.

During his seminary years he was united in marriage with Sue. They have been blessed with five children: Colin, Erin, Cara, Sara, and Laura. They also have six grandchildren.

After his seminary training, Pastor and Sue were assigned to serve in the WELS mission in Central Africa. After more than 20 years in Zambia and Malawi, they returned to the USA and served Immanuel Lutheran Church in LaCrosse, Wisconsin for nearly 10 years. For the last seven years, Pastor and Sue served the WELS sister church in India. Pastor was the field coordinator and head of the worker training program while Sue taught English and administered children's homes and a Lutheran Elementary School. Since it is now impossible for them to continue to work in India, they are patiently waiting for a call to serve the Lord in some other location.
