DAVID AND MARGARET (MCCONAHEY) MCKEEMAN

by Maryellen Larimore Hower

David was born in Northern Ireland, 21 May 1821, son of William McKeeman. He married Margaret Ann (Peggy) McConachy, daughter of John McConachy, 8 February 1850 at Croaghmore Presbyterian Church, Ballintoy Parish, County Antrim. The marriage record shows David's occupation as farmer and his residence as Ballyglough.

Margaret, born 9 September 1829, was a resident of Deffrick.

Both their fathers were farmers. Margaret's father, John, was present at the marriage. David was literate, as he signed the certificate. As was usual in those years in Ireland, daughters were not educated and Margaret signed with her mark, X.

RESEARCH ON NAMES

Research into available passenger lists has not shown when David and Margaret came to America. Their first child was born April 1851 in New York, according to the 1870 Indiana Census record. Immigration must have been between Feb 1850 and April 1851. They lived in the Albany, New York area for several years before migrating to Indiana. It can be assumed that they came to Indiana because Margaret's brother and two sisters had already settled in the Hoagland area by that time. Sisters Nancy Kerr had immigrated to America in 1843 and Isobel English in 1847. David and Margaret came to Indiana between 1853 and 1861. The 1870 Indiana Census lists their son, John, as born in New York and the rest of the children born in Indiana. The 1880 Census states (John dead and Catherine married) Margaret and Jennie as born in New York.
