Divisions in the Church

Brethren, I appeal to you by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brethren.

What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius; lest anyone should say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.)

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power. For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God.

In Memory of Robert Mark

In October our Orthodox family unexpectedly lost Robert Mark a long-standing member of our parish. The family asked that donations be made to All Saints Camp and Teenage Conference in his name.

Teenage Conference has deep roots in the Mark family starting over 50 years ago when Robert and his wife Yvonne were introduced. Robert, Yvonne, Erika, and Anna formed lifetime memories and friendships at All Saints Camp.

The money provided campers with fun nightly activities during the encampment. Robert's memory was also honored at the 72nd Annual Ukrainian Orthodox Convention which was held at All Saints Camp.

Helen Greenleaf, from the Parma parish, sponsored the welcome dinner Thursday evening in memory of Robert. Memory Eternal.

Gospel: Matthew 14:14-22 Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

At that time, Jesus saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me."

Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the crowds. And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Keep us in Thy Holiness that all day long we may be instructed in Thy Righteousness! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Wisdom for the Week

“Let everything take second place to our care of our children, our bringing them up to the discipline and instruction of the Lord. If from the beginning we teach them to love true wisdom, they will have great wealth and glory than riches can provide. If a child learns a trade, or is highly educated for a lucrative profession, all this is nothing compared to the art of detachment from riches; if you want to make your child rich, teach him this. He is truly rich who does not desire great possessions, or surround himself with wealth, but who requires nothing...

Don't think that only monks need to learn the Bible; Children about to go out into the world stand in greater need of Scriptural knowledge.”

+ St. John Chrysostom, Homilies on Ephesians, Homily 21

The works of mercy are innumerable. Their very variety brings this advantage to those who are true Christians, that in the matter of almsgiving not only the rich and affluent but also those of average means and the poor are able to play their part. Those who are unequal in their capacity to give can be equal in the love within their hearts.
