Disclosure Statement & Agreement For Services Informed Consent

Introduction: This document is intended to provide important information to you regarding your treatment. Please read the entire document carefully and be sure to ask your therapist any questions that you may have regarding its contents.

Information about Your Therapist: You are free to ask questions at any time about my background, experience and professional orientation.

Fees and Insurance

The fee for service is $ 110.00 per 50-minute individual therapy session. All sessions are approximately 50 minutes in length. Fees are payable at the time that services are rendered. Please ask before services begin if you wish to discuss a written agreement that specifies an alternative payment procedure.

Please inform me if you wish to utilize health insurance to pay for services. If I am a contracted provider for your insurance company, I will discuss the procedures for billing your insurance. The amount of reimbursement and the amount of any co-payments or deductible depends on the requirements of your specific insurance plan. You should be aware that insurance plans generally limit coverage to certain diagnosable mental conditions. You should also be aware that you are responsible for verifying and understanding the limits of your insurance coverage. Although I am happy to assist your efforts to seek insurance reimbursement, I am unable to guarantee whether your insurance will provide payment for the services provided to you. Please discuss any questions or concerns that you may have about this with me. If for some reason you find that you are unable to continue paying for your therapy, you should inform me. I will help you to consider any options that may be available to you at that time.

Confidentiality

All communications discussed in sessions will be held in strict confidence unless you provide written permission to release information about your treatment. If you participate in marital or family therapy, I will not disclose confidential information about your treatment unless all person(s) who participated in the treatment with you provide their written authorization to release. It is important that you know that I utilize a “no-secrets” policy when conducting family or marital/couples therapy. This means that if you participate in family, and/or marital/couples therapy, I am permitted to use information obtained in an individual session that you may have shared, when working with other members of your family. Please feel free to ask me about this “no secrets” policy and how it may apply to you.

Exceptions to confidentiality, include, but are not limited to; reporting child abuse including sexual molestation, viewing, producing or distributing child pornography; elder and dependent adult abuse; when a patient makes a serious threat of violence towards a reasonably identifiable victim; when a patient is dangerous to him/herself or the person or property of another; or if compelled to do so by a court of law.

Therapist will not voluntarily participate in any litigation, or custody dispute in which Patient and another individual, or entity, are parties. Therapist has a policy of not communicating with Patient’s attorney and will generally not write or sign letters, reports, declarations, or affidavits to be used in Patient’s legal matter. Should Therapist be subpoenaed, or ordered by a court of law, to appear as a witness in an action involving Patient, Patient agrees to reimburse Therapist for any time spent for preparation, travel, or other time in which Therapist has made him/herself available for such an appearance at Therapist’s usual and customary hourly rate of $100/hour.

Minors and Confidentiality

Communications between therapists and clients who are minors (under the age of 18) are confidential. However, parents and other guardians who provide authorization for their child’s treatment are often involved in their treatment.

Consequently, I, in the exercise of my professional judgment, may discuss the treatment progress of a minor patient with the parent or caretaker. Clients who are minors and their parents are urged to discuss any questions or concerns that they have on this topic with me.

Appointment Scheduling and Cancellation Policies

Sessions are typically scheduled to occur one time per week at the same time and day if possible. I may suggest a different amount of therapy depending on the nature and severity of your concerns. Your consistent attendance greatly contributes to a successful outcome. In order to cancel or reschedule an appointment, you are expected to notify me at least 24 hrs in advance of your appointment. If you do not provide at least 24 hours notice in advance, you are responsible for payment for the missed session. Please understand that your insurance company will not pay for missed or cancelled sessions.

Therapist Availability/Emergencies

Telephone consultations between office visits are welcome. However, I will attempt to keep those contacts brief due to the belief that important issues are better addressed within regularly scheduled sessions.

You may leave a message for me at any time on my confidential voicemail. If you wish me to return your call, please be sure to leave your name and phone number(s), along with a brief message concerning the nature of your call. In the event of a medical emergency or an emergency involving a threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 911 to request emergency assistance. I am generally available to return phone calls within approximately 24 hours. I am not able to return phone calls after 8:00 pm or on weekends.

About the Therapy Process

It is my intention to provide services that will assist you in reaching your goals. Based upon the information that you provide and the specifics of your situation, I will make recommendations to you regarding your treatment. I believe that therapists and clients are partners in the therapeutic process. You have the right to agree or disagree with my recommendations. I will also periodically provide feedback to you regarding your progress and will invite your participation in the discussion. Due to the varying nature and severity of problems and the individuality of each client, I am unable to predict the length of your therapy or to guarantee a specific outcome or result.

Termination of Therapy

The length of your treatment and the timing of the eventual termination of your treatment depend on the specifics of your treatment plan and the progress you achieve. It is a good idea to plan for your termination, in collaboration with your therapist. I will discuss a plan for termination with you as you approach the completion of your treatment goals. You may discontinue therapy at any time. If you or I determine that you are not benefiting from treatment, either of us may elect to initiate a discussion of your treatment alternatives. Treatment alternatives may include, among other possibilities, referral, changing your treatment plan, or terminating your therapy.
