

July 2020

We pray to God who is mystery in-fleshed in Jesus, beyond all definition, that when in the midst of uncertainly
– may we know faith.
When in the midst of anxiety
– may we know serenity.
When in the midst of stress
– may we know calm.
When in the midst of fear
– may we know trust.
When in the midst of bewilderment
– may we know assurance.
When in the midst of confusion
– may we know peace.
When in the midst of whatever
– may we know love.

Thoughts on Social Distancing

Every hand that we don't shake must become a phone call that we place.

Every embrace that we avoid must become a verbal expression of warmth and concern.

Every inch and every foot that we physically place between ourselves and another, must become a thought as to how we might be of help to that other, should the need arise.

Sunday, July 5 after Worship

Together but not too close together and with precautions.

Lord of Life Abundant,

do not let us fall into the temptation to believe that fear leads our lives.

Do not let us believe that your Spirit of Love and Power left us aside and adrift.

Do not let us fall into the temptation to close ourselves in on us and believe that there are only grey mornings with drops of despair, anguish and desolation.

do not let us fall into the temptation to believe that virus contamination can outweigh your strength, power and mercy.

Do not let us believe that we are paralyzed, without courage, afraid to fail in the way of your gospel for not finding a word of encouragement to lead the discouraged.

Lead us Lord to the clear path, to the diaphanous and divine light that comes from your presence, that gives us unity and brings us together to encourage our lives and tells us, over and over again, "DO NOT BE AFRAID".

Have mercy, Lord! And lead us not into temptation. Amen.
