A Word to the Fore: Boldly in the Pretend

Seems like every time I write one of these "Word to the Fore" columns, I glance at the previous one first and think, "Man, I had no idea what was coming...!"

Just this week, my ol' boss at Hoof Beats magazine, Dean Hoffman, steered Kelley Bell my way. Kelley does a radio show called "Horsing Around" for WDLR Radio 1270 AM and 96.7 FM in Delaware & Union counties, Ohio. She's an outstanding interviewer, and we spoke about vintage customs and VCMEC, BreyerFest, collecting Breyers, and on into harness racing and favorite memories from my 11 years at Hoof Beats. It aired July 15 and will be archived soon at <https://my967.net/horsing-around/> -- check it out!

As wonderful a surprise as that was, getting a free trip to Atlanta, Ga., to be a guest at geek culture event Momocon over Memorial Day weekend (in recognition of some of my doin's as an anime fan since the '80s :D) is mighty tough to top as the hugest surprise since last issue.

My Omni Hotel room had broadcast TV, which is something we don't have at home (no streaming services either; money's been tight), so whenever I was in the hotel room, that TV was on. In flipping channels, I kept coming across a certain animated show that Disney was airing whether it was 7 a.m. or 2 a.m.-- and after just a few of its short li'l episodes, I was enchanted.

It's called "Bluey," and is centered on an anthropomorphic family of Australian Heeler dogs, parents raising their children in Brisbane, Queensland. On the surface, it's a children's show--but it really does speak to all generations. Turns out it's now in its third season. It's crafted with real care, has exceptional music and a sense of humor that tickles me... and I've found that watching it actually helps me feel better about the world. So I got the DVDs and CDs. :-) Hey, I take comfort where I can, folks!

Long story short, our unpacking of model horses and memories is still continuing, and it's been yielding quite a few blasts from the past--including the 1974 photo above, of me fitting a rubber-band halter on my favorite in my kiddyhood herd, Smokey the Stretch Morgan. Coincidentally, right after the photo surfaced, I heard for the first time a song from "Bluey" that really resonated. It's called "Rain (Boldly in the Pretend)," and the lyrics are at right. If you don't have the CD, the song is on Youtube and is well worth a listen.

So many of our vintage customs came into being in pursuit of the pretend. Yes, we're capturing life in miniature; yes, model horses are an excellent way to learn about equine anatomy and the world's many breeds and performance disciplines, and model horse shows are great incentive to keep on researching...but, yes, undeniably, model horses are not real horses.

But these vintage customs are a form of folk art by their creating artists, who expanded their equine knowledge as they explored evolving materials and honed their craft. For those who collect, vintage customs carry our investment of energy and imagination that has gone into naming them, showing them, piecing together their past, celebrating their artists. Perhaps most importantly, they're a tangible reminder of our memories, unique to our experiences with them.

The VCMEC Museum is here to help preserve and protect them. Because these works of art are worth it...and because, hey, we all take comfort where we can, folks.

Enjoy the summer, and we'll see you in September!

-Sparky C.

Rain (Boldly in the Pretend)

Lyrics by Jazz D'Arcy, music by Joff Bush

The rain washes in and the boats start to race
The humidity broke...I still remember the taste
Mud squished through our toes and it gave Mum the blues
I remember it all, through rose-coloured hues...
And the boats went flying along.

We kept our socks on, white cotton turned brown.
I turned to see Mum, she was smiling with a frown.
And we didn't have a lot and didn't always have a say.
But we were learning to grow and we knew how to play.
And we raced those boats down the road to the end...
And lived boldly in the pretend.

Our shoes were outgrown, we had new things to chase
We were learning life's games and finding our place.
Summers went by and we ran from the rain,
Though we really did think we'd all stay the same
As those boats kept flying along.

Now I race off to work, and I step in some sand.
I brush the mud off with the palm of my hand.
I look up at the kids as they play in the rain.
Their white socks are brown...we play the same game.
We all race those boats down the road to the end.
We all race those boats down the road to the end
And live boldly in the pretend!

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

MUSTAFA BEY

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Corky Visminas writes, "The Classic Arabian Stallion is one of the most versatile and well-sculpted models Breyer has ever offered, and Mustafa Bey, customized by Julie Froelich in 1979, is one of my all-time favorite customs done on this mold. He's also proof that 'fake fur' can make an excellent mane and tail when well-handled. VCMEC is the only venue this veteran is being shown in, and I'm so pleased that he's done so well!"

BROOKRIDGE DANTON

Quarter Pony stallion ~ CM by Laura Behning in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Corky Visminas writes, "I automatically fall in love with Brookridge Danton every time I look at him. He looks like the kind of horse any horse-crazy little girl would love to own-- he's adorable yet still very typey, and he looks like he'd be a lot of fun to not only ride, but just plain hang out with. Even though he's a stallion, you get the idea from looking at him that he'd be incredibly gentle and well-mannered. Wouldn't it be fun to ride him bareback through a creek, or feed him apples and carrots under a shady tree?"

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Lois Bennington writes, "I fell in love with the mold Justin Morgan when it first came out and wanted a nice repaint on it. Laura (Hornick) Behning was one of three repainters I consistently went to for new show horses. I probably saw something else that Laura painted chestnut and that was how I chose Dane Tyler's color. (I'm not very inventive.) What Laura delivered was possibly the prettiest chestnut ever painted! And the hair job! Dane Tyler has been one of my absolute favorites over the years and I'm always thrilled when a judge sees his beauty!"

WICKENDEN OSPREY

Welsh Sec. B stallion ~ CM by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derosseau in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "The RR (what CM was called back in the day) Grand Champion of Marney Walerius' 1979 Model Horse Congress, foremost live show of its time, Wickenden Osprey was for years a celebrity in Liz Bouras' superstar stable. I visited her place in 1986, and as she handled him almost reverently and reeled off his accomplishments, I thought about what a responsibility it must be to be the caretaker of such an intimidatingly iconic horse.

"Just over a quarter-century later, Liz invited offers for some of her treasures, and I asked after Osprey. Liz explained that he was in need of restoration; Cheryl Abelson had haired his mane and tail with hair from her English Sheepdog, but the hair had disintegrated over time, and he also needed some minor touch-ups. With my promise to get him restored, Liz allowed me to buy him! Meghann Hoscheid then did a wonderful job restoring him.

"This is my 11th year of responsibility for safeguarding this hobby legend, and Liz having passed away last year makes that responsibility all the deeper. I'm so grateful to her for the opportunity to look after him!"

DARK COMMANDER

American Saddlebred stallion ~ CM by Adren King (remake) and Jason Ross (repaint/hair) in 1986

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Colleen Headley first shared her thoughts on this awesome fellow in the Summer 2019 issue--you'll find it in our free online archive of issues, at <http://www.vcmec.org/vcmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html> !

AMOUR

Arabian mare ~ CM by Jason Ross in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Color

Kelly O'Connor writes, "I never saw her sire Araqonce, a MARA superstar, but I was thrilled to have this beautiful daughter of his created by Jason Ross. Her beautiful face and rich black-bay coat still entrance me all these years later." [Editor's note: Kelly sent a copy of Amour's 1989 MARA-ABC sale catalog page--it's on page 31!]

JETAN'S GLORY

Thoroughbred Mare ~ CM by Jason Ross in 1988

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Kelly O'Connor writes, "Perhaps my strongest love-at-first-sight model experience ever. I saw that kind, willing, patient expression on one of my favorite Love sculpts in the MARA-ABC Select Sale catalog and was smitten. Back in those days MARA-ABC auctions wrapped up on the phone, and I kept calling Ava Durbin from the floor of a friend's dorm room to keep raising my bid until she was mine. If I could wave a magic wand over any model I own and bring one to life, it would be JG. She is my model heart horse."

SWEET JANE

Arabian mare ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Laura Doll writes, "I bought Sweet Jane sight unseen from one of Carol Williams' production sale lists, just based on the description. It was most likely the last or one of the last sales she did of a group of custom models because she was moving on to producing her own sculptures - specifically the QH1 at that time. I have always loved Carol's bays and was thrilled when I got her. Her success in these VCMEC shows has been a pleasant surprise for me - I feel like she was often overlooked when I was actively showing her in the '90s. People could see that she was made from a PAM, but wouldn't look close enough to see all of the refinements that Carol had done. I think she is gorgeous and I'm glad she is getting recognition now!"

TECH NOIR II

Arabian stallion ~ CM by unknown artist in the 1990s

1990s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Amanda Ingram writes, "Not sure who the artist is or when he was made. The previous owner said it was made in the '90s is all. It looks like a SM Citation mold to me. Would love to know who customized him!"

INDIAN PRIDE

Thoroughbred mare ~ CM by Sarah King in 1991

1990s Overall Champion Color

Kelly O'Connor writes, "I have always loved the elegance of the Kelso mold and the myriad patterns that dapple grey can take, and I was thrilled to have both in this beautiful mare."

MARS FLASH

Paint stallion ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Doin' his daddy Naoto Nisei proud! It was years ago but I can still feel the excitement of being in time to get this CM Breyer Adios on one of Carol Williams' sales lists! He was still in progress, so Carol let me choose his color and pattern.

"Carol wrote me with an update, mentioning that she'd first painted him all in Mars Violet to make sure the remaking was smooth. The 'Mars' part stuck in mind, and I wound up naming him after the sword weapon of an anime robot hero.

"Carol also said she'd decided to try something different, replacing his head with a ceramic head she'd cast from her sculpture...a sculpture that would go on to become her landmark RRQH1 resin! (Mars Flash is one of two remakes she did this with; the other was a Stud Spider CM as a blue roan overo named Blue Jack Rio. Although I let Blue Jack's current owner know his origin and the fragility that goes with it, she still claims he's a customized Stone ISH. Ah well, just don't knock him over!)

"I was out of the hobby for a decade after moving to Japan in 2000, and when I got back in, dun and buckskin overo custom horses seemed to keep finding their way to me. It was as though Mars Flash had been 'busy' in the meantime, getting a next generation ready to greet me! I felt almost like Rip Van Winkle, waking up to find that Naoto Nisei's best son (Mars Flash was fittingly destined to be Naoto Nisei's best, since he doesn't much resemble his sire ;^) was already carrying on as a fine sire."

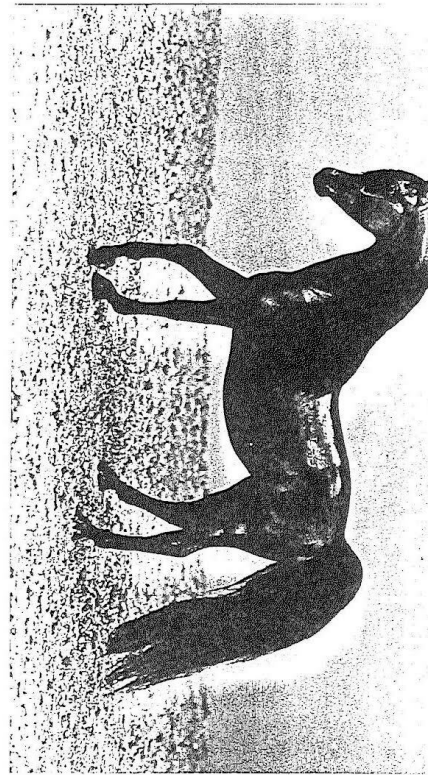

EMILY

Morgan mare ~ CM by Sarah King in 1990

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Kelly O'Connor writes, "It's hard to be in the northeast and not love the Morgan Horse. Sarah King had a talent for chestnut, so appropriate for the Morgan; she also painted my chestnut Morgan stallion, So Jazzy. It's such a hard color to get right and I love everything about the way she painted this lovely horse, from her dapples to the hair detail of her mane. I jumped at the chance when she offered this mare."

Thanks to Kelly O'Connor for sharing this peek back through time at the 1989 MARA-ABC Select Sale catalog page of future VCMEC champ Amour!

CONSIGNOR'S COMMENTS: "It has become a tradition to include an ARAGONCE daughter in the Select Sale, and this year AMOUR represents her illustrious sire--as one of the best yet. A beautiful mare who resembles her sire more than some of his daughters have done, she has poise and performance ability bred in from both parents. This little lady could go a long way for her new owner if she has a full line of good performance photos; and her pedigree indicates excellent racing potential and a future as a valuable broodmare also. She'll be eligible for the Egyptian Event in 1990, too. But best of all--as her name indicates, she is a mare who has a lot of love to give, and she's equally easy to love in return. So if you are looking for a mare who will be a joy to own, consider AMOUR!"
