The Tale of True Prosperity

I was born in New York on May 16, 2016. My registered Jockey Club name is True Prosperity but, since I was born, my owners call me Little "Squeaky" Princess. They say it's because from the moment I was born all I did was squeak. (I finally got them to drop "Squeaky" when I stopped squeaking!)

My dad, Boys At Tosconova, is a graded stakes winner who beat horses like Stay Thirsty and Groupie Doll, whoever they are. His dad is a graded stakes winner and his mom is the daughter of a graded stakes winning millionaire!

Prosperity Avenue, that's my mom, was a decent racer and her dad was multiple graded stakes winning millionaire! She pretty much let me do what I want. My owners tell me that's why I have "attitude".

The worst day for me ever is when I had to leave my mom. They told me it was time I start growing up on my own and that I have a lot to live up to. No pressure here!

Growing up, my best friend was Romancing the Cat. We stuck together like peanut butter and jelly! Then one day they said I had to go be with the other fillies and he had to go be with the colts. I hope I see him again someday!

Life now is pretty simple. I live on a great farm in New York and have made new friends but I'm always planning my escape to find adventures off the farm! I am very sweet but I like to get my way. Maybe that's why they say I have attitude!

It's great when my owners come to see me – they come every week! They bring me carrots and I get plenty of hugs, rubs and kisses – when I feel like it! I am, after all, a Little Princess!

Pretty soon, I will have to go to another farm to train for racing. I'm kind of excited about that! There is "Winner" in my blood so I can't wait for my first race!

Well, that's all that's happened in my life so far. I hope you might continue to follow my journey because I'm sure there will be plenty to add to my story. In fact, why not be a part of it and join my partnership? I can never have too many great owners! (And I am pretty adorable!)
