Volunteers needed for “We the People” state simulated congressional hearings

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE) is seeking volunteers to judge the state high school “We the People” simulated congressional hearings. “We the People” is a nationally acclaimed high school civics curriculum that focuses on the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Judges will sit on a panel of three and will be provided with the hearing questions and optional follow-up questions.

The state competition is Friday, Feb. 6, in Baton Rouge. Competitions are three to four hours and are generally concluded by noon.

Volunteers from the legal and academic communities are integral to the success of this program. The winner of the state competition will represent Louisiana at the national competition in Washington, D.C.

To volunteer or for more information on the program, contact LCLCE Executive Director Peggy Cotogno at (504) 619-0134 or email peggy.cotogno@lsba.org.
