

The Charlotte Chorale announces annual Christmas Concert

Provided by JANET SIMS
MARKETING DIRECTOR

Join in celebrating the Christmas Season with The Charlotte Chorale's annual Christmas Concert Dec. 9, "A Season of Hope." Enjoy traditional Christmas music performed by Charlotte County's largest community choir under the distinguished and expert direction of Dr. William Dederer.

"A Season of Hope" will transport you back to a simpler time of Christmas memories of children, family, friends, good food and warm wishes.

Listen to the Sounds of the Season with quality choral music that will fill your heart with joy, peace and HOPE.

The concert will be performed at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9, at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center, in Punta Gorda. The Charlotte Performing Arts Center is centrally located at 701 Carmalita Street, Punta Gorda, with ample parking.

Thirty Years in Charlotte County. The Charlotte Chorale is a sixty-plus voice community choir dedicated to the enrichment of music of all genres from the great masters to current composers. The Christmas Concert is the first of three concerts during the 2018-19 Season. The Chorale has a long history of excellent concerts and has for three years won the prestigious Harbor Style Magazine's "Harbor's Hottest" for Best Performing Arts Groups in our area.

Reserved seat tickets can be

PHOTO PROVIDED

Dr. William Dederer

purchased by calling 941-204-0033. Adults $25, students $10, payment by credit card available. Ask about season ticket discounts. For more information, visit www.charlottechorale.com or email: thecharlottechorale@yahoo.com.

The Charlotte Chorale is a nonprofit organization dedicated to musical enrichment in our community.