

The Netherlands and the Republic of Korea concluded a MoU on the exchange of information in tax matters

(June 17, 2014)

The Dutch government has announced that its tax administration has concluded a Memorandum of Understanding on the exchange of information in tax matters with the tax administration of the Republic of Korea. According to the announcement of the Dutch government, the first exchange of information will take place regarding the year 2014.

Click here to be forwarded to the website of the Dutch government where the text of the MoU was published (in English).