

This privacy policy governs your use of NewsHog and/or PinHog and/or Drudgely (the Application) and explains how SoLoMob Inc. treats your information, and protects your privacy, when you use the Application. The Application includes various features and content from news.google.com and/or pinterest.com and/or drudgereport.com. The following are the privacy practices of SoLoMob Inc. with regards to the Application:

1. Information Collection and Use – it is not necessary for you to provide any Personally Identifiable Information to use the Application. “Personally Identifiable Information” is information that identifies an individual including your login credentials to a third party website, name, postal address, and email address. The Application collects unidentifiable and non-personal data Application usage data, all of which do not include Personally Identifiable Information to enable quality assurance, improve the quality of the services and provide anonymous reporting for internal and external customers. In order to use the “repin”, “like” and “comment” features of Pinterest, you will need to login using your Pinterest account. This information may be stored temporarily within the Application on your device, but is not available to SoLoMob Inc.
2. Third Party Content – The content on the Application is obtained from news.google.com and/or pinterest.com and/or drudgereport.com. The Application is not an official application of Google, and/or Pinterest and/or Drudge Report and is not affiliated with any of these entities.
3. Updates – from time to time we may update this privacy policy. We encourage you to visit and review this policy frequently to stay informed