

Mrs. Liz Easley

4th/5th Grade

Liz Dickerson Easley has been imparting knowledge as an educator for 47 years. She earned her B.S. Degree in Reading with a minor in Social Studies from Delta State University during what she describes as the “horse and buggy days.” She also holds a Master’s Degree from Harding University.

Mrs. Easley has two daughters, Heather (Class of 1998) and Katie (Class of 2003), both honor graduates of Marvell Academy. Mrs. Easley’s grandson, Parker, is an Eagle also.

Mrs. Easley has held many positions throughout her career:

Kindergarten teacher (20 years)

7th and 8th grade Reading teacher (6 years)

Literacy Specialist for Great Rivers Educational Cooperative (9 years)

Literacy Specialist for Marvell Public School (5 years)

4th and 5th grade teacher (7 years)

During her time with Great Rivers, she wrote and provided professional development for the teachers in the state of Arkansas, as well as, working with many well-known authors.

Her main focus is to help students develop a love of reading by offering a plethora of books to read and discuss. She feels that every student is a reader, you just have to find the right book!
