

TAMMY BISHOP

Company Teacher & Choreographer

Class Teacher

Tammy's versatility knows no bounds! She teaches classes in many styles, and for many ages and levels at Aspire.

Tammy started dancing at the age of three. She is trained in ballet, contemporary, lyrical, jazz, tap, modern, and hip hop.

Tammy graduated from Thousand Oaks High School where she was on the competitive dance team for a total of 3 years, and an officer for the team her senior year. Tammy continued her training at Aspire where she was a national award winning member and a captain of the Aspire Dance Company, and the Aspire Adult Company. Tammy is currently continuing her dance studies at Moorpark College.

This year Tammy will be working with the Aspire Dance Company as a coach and choreographer.

Tammy is a dedicated teacher who loves teaching her students at Aspire, and loves sharing her enthusiasm and passion for dance with them!
