New prayer letter design

In recognition of our ministerial “restart” in a new area, a revision of the prayer letter format was in order. By way of explanation, the motif is based on the regional flag here (that’s the official English translation of the name of the region, there in the new header above), and the photo was taken on our trip across the Strait of Magellan on our way to Tierra del Fuego (LORD willing, our subsequent gateway to Antarctica proper and “the uttermost part of the earth”). All of this “renovation” has led, in turn, to us currently working on “remodeling” our prayer card and information brochure, a “revamped” short video presentation, as well as (eventually) “refitting” our website. Further “release and redistribution” information will be forthcoming, and then some form of “information package” will be sent out to all our supporters and prayer letter recipients, LORD willing, as it is not the LORD’s leading nor our intention at this time to go to the USA for any kind of furlough or church-visiting/reporting travels.

The “old, old story of Jesus and His love” remains the same...

...No “revisions” ever required (no matter how much man wants to “reimagine” it)! We are incessantly grateful to the LORD and to you faithful believers who make it possible for us to be here at the ends of the earth “publishing” (Mark 1:45) His story amongst the lost and (usually) deceived souls of these end times. Although most of this month has found us occupied with the final steps of returning the house in Valdivia to its owner, and moving into our latest earthly residence here in Punta Arenas (in allusion to last month’s letter, thanks for praying us through the last “fourth” of our move!), there have been opportunities nonetheless to attempt to communicate His Good News to a few who have yet to receive Him, as well as to fellowship with some who have. Please pray for Stephanie and Gabriel, as well as others unnamed here who have received tracts and encouragement to give consideration to the LORD’s message. Thank the LORD for the salvation of José, an English-speaking Venezuelan immigrant whom Bro. Derek led to CHRIST, and pray for the salvation of his wife Diana, as well as a young man named Luis, and Sebastian, to whom the Hansens witnessed while we were street preaching and tracting in the town square this past weekend. Continue in prayer for Bro. Atilio and his family, as well as a couple of others who’ve said that they would attend if and when we get a regular group Bible study started (we are working on something towards that end, about which more details will be shared within the next month or two, as the LORD provides). In the immediate, we have been meeting with the Hansens twice weekly, spending a few hours “shoring up” everyone’s Spanish (including the teacher’s [mine]), with emphasis on practical usage in dealing with real people, as opposed to the “technical study” available in books and lessons.

A serious prayer request, and a “praisefer” report, from “back up north”

Those of you who’ve read the last 3 prayer letters know that there was something of a “mini-revival” going on with the 2 churches in Valdivia and Paillaco, primarily via the new group in the former, with souls getting saved, believers having their eyes opened to Biblical truth and getting “on track,” as well as “straying sheep” returning to the fold, etc. Well, the old Adversary (I Pet. 5:8) of the family (Eph. 3:15) was quite aware of it too, and, in response, launched what might be compared to a “D-Day” counterattack on the ministry in the 14th region. The situation is so “ugly,” and the effects so far-reaching, that it is prudent at this time to say only that we are asking your most fervent intercessory prayers for both churches and their pastors (Bros. Raul and David) to be able to even continue to function, and go forward with the LORD (more details forthcoming, as the LORD guides and indicates). The “praise-the-LORD” part is that, after several years of paperwork and delays, the LaRue family and Sister Sarah Cagle were finally awarded their Chilean Permanent Residence visas, and so have passed the final legal/administrative hurdle in their being able to attend without interruption upon the ministries that the LORD has given them amongst the people here. Please remain in continuous prayer for the LaRues, who are now in the USA, traveling around visiting churches in their one-year furlough, and for Sis. Cagle, who will be traveling here at the beginning of August to complete the final steps of receiving the visa; many of you know the very difficult time through which she and her family having been passing recently, and we know that they would appreciate your continued anonymous prayers for them even now. In closing, thank you again for faithfully holding the “prayer rope” for us; may the LORD be pleased by it.

In Christ,

Philip & Brenda Robinson
