

REFLECTION for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the time of Jesus there were a burdensome 613 laws that the faithful were supposed to follow/ keep. When asked which was the most important, Jesus proclaimed just one- the Law of Love. This was then expanded to two- love of God and love of neighbour.

But there is another hidden law intertwined within these two- it is the love of self. Many theologians and psychologists would argue that no one can love God or neighbour without first learning to love her/him self.

Faith and trust in the power of the Holy Spirit to renew/nourish both body and soul are essential in developing a true love of self. In other words, you need to have Jesus and his Way in your life daily.

May I be so bold as to suggest that a lack of humility and openness to the power of Jesus to bring about this renewal is what stifles expressions of love in today's world. Fr. Don

HALLOWEEN

Did you know that Halloween has a religious connection? The word Halloween means All Hallows Eve. It is called that because the next day is All Hallows, or All Saints, Day. The ancient Celts thought that the veil between the world of the living and the world of the dead was very thin on the eve of this feast day and that the spirits could pass through this thin veil. People wore masks so that the spirits would not be able to recognize them. They carved scary faces and lit candles to keep the spirits away.
