CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsively)

Dianne Propst, Liturgist

Today is the birthday of the church, celebrating that Pentecost when the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles, inspiring them to proclaim God's salvation for all people.

As Christ's church let us pray for the Holy Spirit to ignite a fire in our souls and inspire us to fulfill the ministry to which God has called us.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION (Responsively)

Dianne Propst, Liturgist

O Eternal God, who sent your Holy Spirit upon your Church on the day of Pentecost and promised to abide with it forever:

Let that same Spirit lead us into truth, defend us from all sin, enrich us with your gifts, rule our hearts in all things, and lead us in the way everlasting; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, world without end. Amen.

God of Majesty and Power, we tremble when we truly become aware of who you are.

We admit our resistance to your Spirit.

We love your church, but we confess that we have considered it more as an institution instead of a living power through which your Spirit can work.

We acknowledge our misuse of the gifts you have bestowed upon us. We often prefer those things that separate us rather than unite us to one another.

Forgive the resistance in our hearts to believe and to trust in you. Fill us, O Lord, with the outpouring of your Spirit that we may see your church come alive.

We ask all these things in the name of Christ who taught us to pray: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

Rev. Peggy Stout

Let us confess the faith of our baptism:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING Genesis 11:1-9

Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. ²And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³And they said to one another, ‘Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.’ And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. ⁴Then they said, ‘Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.’ ⁵The Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. ⁶And the Lord said, ‘Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them.’ ⁷Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.’ ⁸So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. ⁹Therefore it was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!

NEW TESTAMENT READING Acts 2:1-8, 12-15

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. ⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷Amazed and astonished, they asked, ‘Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?’ ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?

¹²All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’
¹³But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’ ¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!
