CCOSBR ADULT AWARDS HISTORY

The Diocese of Baton Rouge Catholic Committee on Scouting awards Religious Adult Awards to adults in recognition for their dedicated years of service to the spiritual development of scouting religious awards.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award

Elizabeth Ann Seton was a woman of tremendous courage. She was a convert to Catholicism and a founder of a religious order. Her religious daughters carry on her works of education and charity. She was a teacher whose love and respect of young people led her to devote her life to the establishment of the Catholic School System in America. The St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Adult Award was inaugurated in 1980 to recognize the contributions of an adult leader whose commitment to the Catholic religious awards has enabled the Girl Scouts to grow in their knowledge, love and service to God.

St. Anne Award

The St. Anne Award is the highest national recognition for adults who serve Catholic girls through Girl Scouting and Camp Fire. The St. Anne Award was inaugurated in 1957 and redesigned in 1980. The purpose of the St. Anne recognition are:

- To honor the outstanding services of adults who contribute to the spiritual development of Catholic young people in these organizations.
- To further Catholic adult leadership in youth ministry through these national youth-serving organizations.

Bronze Pelican Award

The Pelican has been used as a liturgical symbol since the early days of Christianity. It denotes the tender care of the young by the parent and of the Church. The Diocese of Baton Rouge provides the Bronze Pelican Award to men and women for the recognition of their efforts in contributing directly to the spiritual nourishment of Catholic boys and girls in the Scouting movement.

St. George Emblem

Lord Baden-Powell selected St. George as the patron of Scouting because of St. George's virtues of courage, honor and fortitude in defense of the Christian faith. He is known for his advancement to a high military rank and his organization of a Christian community. The St. George Emblem is to recognize an adult leader's outstanding contribution to the spiritual development of Catholic youth in the program of the Boy Scouts of America. The St. George Emblem is the highest National Catholic Committee on Scouting award achieved in Boy Scouts.

Elbert K. Fretwell Outstanding Educator Award

The Elbert K. Fretwell Outstanding Educator Award was established by the Boy Scouts of America in 2016 to recognize the valuable contributions that educators make in the lives of young people. The Boy Scouts of America's mission is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes, and we recognize that teachers, staff, administrators, and others involved in educating young people are valuable partners in that mission. This award recognizes individuals who go above and beyond the call of duty to instill what we refer to as "Scouting Values," but we recognize that they are great "Teaching Values" as well.
