Northeast Unit

November 5, 2020

5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. (ET)

This event is Part II of our series on race and is designed to create a more trusting atmosphere in discussing issues of race in social work and deepen our understanding of the impact of institutional racism.

The panel will consist of social workers and community leaders who will share their thoughts and experiences on race on a personal and professional level.

Registration is free!
