

El Santuario de Los Pobladores (The Sanctuary of the Settlers) is a committee of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish established for the purpose of creating a magnificent arts center, an "adobe" sanctuary. The labyrinth is to be constructed out of adobe, the ancient earthen building technique brought to the San Luis Valley by the early settlers to this part of Southern Colorado, and will be built next to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Conejos, the oldest parish in Colorado. Currently we are promoting an adobe campaign to build the wall which will surround the chapel. Anyone wanting to purchase an adobe in memory of a Loved One or someone special, please contact the church office at 719-376-5985. We will gladly accept any donations, and a contribution of $100 or more will entitle you to a memorial plaque inscribed with your information. We can also arrange for payment by installments. The following list of names have purchased and/or pledged their support of this undertaking, & will be updated as the project moves forward.

MASS READING REFLECTION

Apr. 4, 2021
First Reading
Acts 10:34a, 37-43
[Salvation in Christ]

In this speech of Peter, Luke wants to bring out the basic message of the early Church: the Lord's rejection ("they put him to death"); God's vindication ("God raised [him]"); and the apostles' witness to the Christ-event ("he commissioned us to preach").

Referring to the Stone rejected and made the headstone of the corner, the Church applies Psalm 118 to the death and resurrection of Christ. Indeed, "this is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad" (Responsorial Psalm).

Second Reading
Col 3:1-4
[Seek Heavenly Things]

The First Reading proclaims the living Christ, his life, death, and resurrection. This Second Reading tells us about the implications of all of this for us. Through baptism you have died to your own sinful and egotistic self and you have been raised up to a new life with Christ. You are a Christian. This life is hidden. In its fullness, it will appear in the life to come

The lesson is: "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." This is a strong Semitic saying with the obvious meaning: Do not be so captivated by the tinsel of life or so infected with the commercialism of the day that you lose sight of the things above!

EASTER SUNDAY

Theme: The Lord Has Indeed Risen

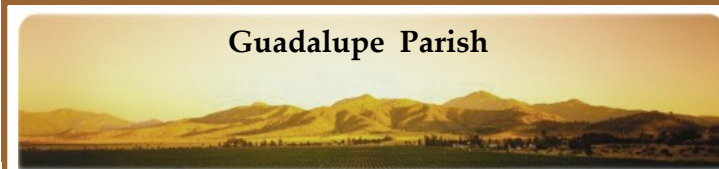

A person who is privileged to visit the tombs of the Pharaohs in Egypt or reads about them in pictorial books is struck by those people's concern about a hereafter. The hieroglyphics for "life everlasting" appear on the murals time and again. People want to live. Easter is the feast of life. "The Lord is truly risen, alleluia" (Entrance Antiphone). "Alleluia—Praise the Lord!" marks all prayers and songs of this festival season. It represents the joy of Christians: The Lord's death was not a defeat but a victory! And we share in the Lord's victory over suffering and death, knowing that life everlasting with Christ will be ours. "I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come" (Profession of Faith).

People want to know: What is the manner of my existence after death? "how are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come back?" (1 Cor 15:35). Paul calls this a nonsensical question. And he adds: "What you sow is not brought to life unless it dies. And what you sow is not the body that is to be but a bare kernel of wheat, perhaps, or of some other kind; but God gives it a body as he chooses, and to each of the seeds its own body: (1 Cor 15:36-38).

This seems to indicate that our lives now are the kernels from which "earthly human beings" must grow into the persons they will be for all eternity. "That which is corruptible must clothe itself with incorruptibility" (1 Cor 15:53). The words found in 1 Corinthians 15:35-38 offer some insight to the inquisitive reader, but ultimately we must leave the details up to God who promised that our reward will be a hundredfold.
