Blast From the Past

Dorothy Trigg

On November 13, 1949, the Catechism Classes were being announced and there was a special announcement stating that the teachers were continuing to teach despite the fact that the teachers had no Catechisms. It is encouraging to see that despite the troubles, there were still people working hard to ensure that the children were being taught, and that it was incredibly important to the community that despite the issues, our early congregation was still ensuring that their children were being instructed in our Holy Catholic Faith.

"Last Sunday our Catechism Classes had an encouraging beginning. It is hoped that even more children will be present for the classes this morning immediately after MASS. The Catechisms haven't yet arrived but I am sure our two splendid teachers will be able to teach the children quite a few things without the books."

Next Sunday:

Adoration Between the Masses

Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Sunday June 18, 2017

9:30 AM - 11:00 AM

For the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, the 8:30 AM Mass will end with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and there will be reposition right before the 11:00 AM Mass.

Between that time, all are invited to adore the Lord Jesus Christ in the Church present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Next week, our second collection is for the Catholic Communications Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. Fifty percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc.
