

Second chances... at love, at life, at legacy.

The exquisite joy of a second chance... at life... at love... at family... and the sweet satisfaction of faithfulness rewarded... these are the timeless themes of Ruth, perhaps one of the most endearing love stories ever on stage at Millennium Theatre. Twenty-two beautiful songs written expressly for the show include "I Will Go (Where You Go)" and "A New Time Has Come," illuminating the passionate story of the Gentile woman whose faith grafted her into the lineage of Jesus Christ, and the noble man whose love redeemed her from hopelessness.

Innovative new lighting effects, magnificent sets, dozens of live animals and more than 600 elaborate costumes enhance this epic show. Ruth is a feast for the senses as well as a deeply touching story that will long linger in your heart. A must-see in this memorable closing season!
