

Children's Books

If your organization decides to sponsor this program as a community service then they will receive $4.00 from every book distributed in town.

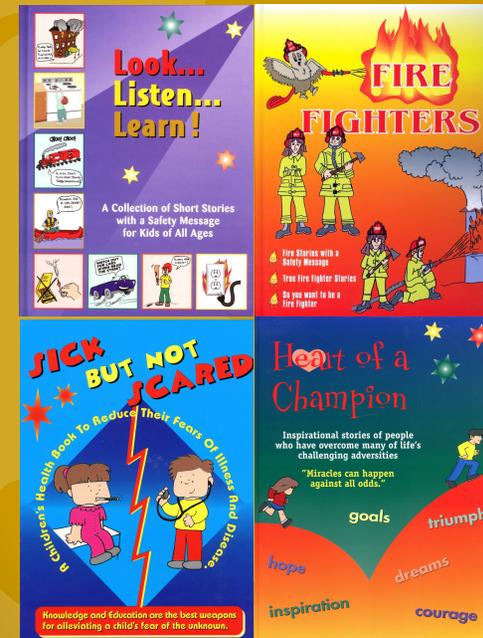

There is no cost to the organization.

The organization is allowed one page at the front of the book for their name and message.

Your organization can distribute them in your community free of charge. Schools, libraries, waiting areas, day cares, churches etc.

The books are funded by local sponsors. We are responsible for gathering the sponsors.

Sponsors would receive an advertisement in the book as well as a complimentary copy.
