To Whom it may Concern,

Craig Gray's sculpture proposal was selected as part of Howard County Arts Council's outdoor art exhibit, ARTsites 2023. The sculpture was completed as the design was presented and was delivered on time. In communication through installation, Mr. Gray acted in a very professional manner. His work stood up to the elements and public interaction over the past year. The piece was ultimately purchased by its host site.

It has been a pleasure working with Craig Gray.

Sincerely,
Dana Whipkey
