STEWARDSHIP

Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life

Jesus' resurrection offers us a newness of life in the Spirit. The gifts of the Holy Spirit, wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, piety, fortitude and fear of the Lord can lead us forward on our journey home. These gifts can even our path, give light to our feet and strengthen our will to follow our Lord when we encounter barriers and detours along the way.

*"In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia."*
-from Veni, Sancte Spiritus

One of the greatest gifts Jesus offers us is forgiveness. What great love He had for us that He willingly accepted His Father's will and lay down His life in payment of our sins. However, we, too, must provide this same opportunity for our brothers and sisters who offend us.

"If you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will forgive you. But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions." (Matthew 6:14)

Through a newness of life in the Spirit and the freeing gift of forgiveness, we can enjoy peace, a peace the world in which we live cannot give. This joy-filled peace Jesus offers us can lift us beyond the doubts and fears, hurts and struggles, as well as the cold and impersonal attitudes of a world imprisoned by bitterness and evil.

*"The resurrection of Jesus is not simply a pledge of a new life in the future, but rather an affirmation that the new life Jesus has promised has already begun. . . . The resurrection of Jesus shows the type of life toward which God's grace and mercy will always lead each of us—if we allow that."*¹
