Lion Don Frevert

We lost a familiar and vibrant voice in our club with the passing of Lion Don Frevert. Our sympathies go out to his widow Joyce and their four children. Don, age 87, joined the Urbandale Lions Club in 1964. He was a Warren Coleman recipient and of course our song leader. In his honor we have donated $50 to the Iowa Lions Foundation.

Opportunities

..if you can help with making a call each month to a short list of Lions we need a replacement for Don Frevert as a caller. It takes about 15 minutes per month. Contact Bill Kuhn to volunteer.

..if you can help with labeling name badges for our new members we have a job for you. If you are interested, please contact Bill Kuhn. Fair warning: Jim Caldbeck will be training you!

..if you take pictures at any Lions event, please forward a copy to secretaries Ron and Marilyn.

Lion Mike Haas

Lion Mike was recently honored big-time by Hy-Vee with the Legendary Customer Service Award. Out of nearly 60,000 employees only 10 are nominated each year for this prestigious award.

A surprised Mike Haas is shown below with Hy-Vee executives who presented him with the award.

Several Urbandale Lions were able to attend and congratulate Mike: Jon Christensen, Bill Kuhn, Jim Caldbeck, Bill Shuttters, Kirk Darling, Velma Caldbeck and Ron Markway.
