All Will Be Well

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Many years ago, I spent a summer in rural Mississippi living and sharing life with the folks of that area. Annie lived on a hillside in the "hollers" of that part of the country. In many ways, she reminded me of Granny from TV's The Beverly Hillbillies. Annie was thin and wiry, wore bib overalls, climbed barbed wire fences, swore like a trooper, and raised a henhouse of chickens in her backyard.

I once asked her what she did with all the eggs she gathered, whether she sold them to make a little money for a rainy day. She said to me, "Lord, no. I give them away, and then when I need something, they give to me. That's the way we live." Her generosity embarrassed me, for she lived with trust like the widows in today's two Scripture readings, giving from their want and their need and finding God taking care of them.

When our day is stretched beyond the time we need, and we choose to share what little time we have with someone who needs our help, somehow our day works itself out. When someone comes in need of love, and we sense we have not even enough to care for ourselves, but still we reach out, we find there is enough love for them and for us. Whenever we give from our want, it always seems God is present amid the trust that all will be well. ●

Reflect

Have you ever shared with others, only to find yourself enriched?

[Jesus said.] "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

New Combined Parish Church Bulletin

A couple months ago you were advised that the weekly bulletin would be revised to include both parishes. The two parishes have been working diligently to accomplish combining information so the publication of the bulletin will be beneficial for both parishes.

Hooray! Our endeavors have worked! We are so excited to distribute our first new bulletin. It is hoped that both parishes will find this new format exciting and informative.

Additionally, each parish will have their own monthly calendar that will be included in the bulletin closest to the beginning of each month. They will be printed back to back so you may view what is happening in both parishes. This is a fantastic way to share and enjoy each parishes events!

Thank you to all who helped make this happen.

Immaculate Conception School News

SCHOOL - SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

The question has been asked, "What school are you attending?" Or "Sending your children to?"

And the answer?

Well the public school of course. When asked why public school instead of Catholic School some of the responses are:

- *Well that's where I went and it was good enough for me.
- *I know the teachers and we want them to be our child's teacher.
- *My Child's friends go there.
- *We pay taxes to support the public schools.
- *There's busing, I don't have to bring my child.
- *It's a good school.
- *My kids want to go there.

I have very seldom heard these reasons:

- *They teach Christ's core values to children; love, generosity, responsibility, self-discipline.
- *The environment is holistic; academics, spiritual, social, emotional and physical development.
- *There's a sense of belonging, community, family involvement.
- *Gospel values are taught:

Humility: seeing the life as a gift, Compassion: having empathy, Kindness: gentleness, Justice: working for a fairer world, Forgiveness: reconciling with self and other, Integrity: do what you say, Peace: committed to peace making and non-violence, Courage: standing up for the truth.

In this community there's a choice as to where you send your child to school. Public School (pre-8th grade) or Catholic School (pre-8th grade).

Dear Padre,

TV's "The Chosen" portrays St. Peter as married. What does the Catholic Church say about this?

Scripture gives evidence about earliest Church practice when it says bishops, presbyters (priests), and deacons should be "married only once" (see 1 Timothy 3:2, 12). That means some of them must have been married! Still, the discipline of celibacy for the sake of the kingdom was encouraged from apostolic times as a way to follow the example of Christ. In the 300s, decrees concerning celibacy of the clergy indicate it was becoming the norm.

Peter is the most frequently mentioned disciple of Jesus in all four Gospels. This Galilean fisherman—introduced to Jesus by his brother, Andrew (see John 1:40–42)—became a spokesman and figure of central importance among the other Apostles.

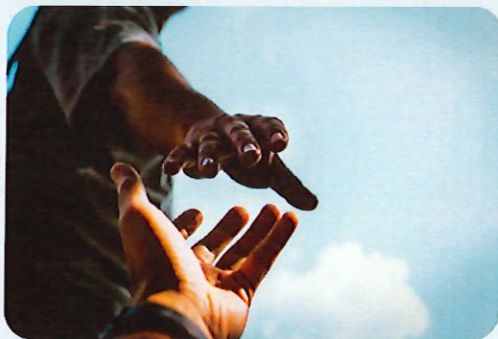

Of the Twelve, some, like Peter, were married. His wife was from Capernaum and their family household may have included his in-laws. According to Scripture, "Jesus entered the house of Peter and saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. He touched her hand, the fever left her, and she rose and waited on him" (Matthew 8:14–15; see also Mark 1:30–31 and Luke 4:38–39). Moreover, Jesus—who may never have owned a home of his own—made the house of Peter his headquarters when he ministered in Capernaum (see Matthew 4:12–13). This house of Peter and his family was venerated by early Christians. Today, the Church of St. Peter's House sits over the original dwelling. ●

Bishop McKnight's November prayer intention for our Local Church

For a spirit of unity and Thanksgiving to be cultivated in our lives and in our nation. That we may see God's light reflected in the blessings of our family, friends and community.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Let us ask ourselves, it will help us: do we want to be appreciated and gratified by what we say and what we do, or rather to be of service to God and neighbor, especially the weakest? Let us watch out for falsehood of the heart, for hypocrisy which is a dangerous illness of the soul!
