

Krohn, Louise

Louise D. Krohn, 98, of Elkton, died Friday afternoon, Jan. 31, 2003, at Willow Tree Haven in Gagetown under hospice care. She was born Oct. 31, 1904 at the home of her parents, the late William and Herlanda (Hoegy) Ewald in Oliver Township, north of Elkton. Except for the last several years she lived her entire life within a couple of miles of where she was born. On Dec. 23, 1926 she was united in marriage to Roy W. Krohn at her parents home in Oliver Township. Mr. Krohn preceded her in death on Oct. 13, 1973. Mrs. Krohn taught at numerous country schools in the county. After taking time to raise a family, she began teaching elementary students, first at Kinde North Huron, and then at Unionville-Sebewaing Schools, until retiring in 1970. She was the oldest member of the Elkton United Methodist Church where she taught Sunday school many years. She was a member of the Huron County Retired Teachers Association and the Elkton Civic Club. Surviving are three children, Ronald Krohn and his wife, Donna, and Kenneth Krohn, all of Elkton, and Marjorie Hall and her husband, Richard, of Cass City; a daughter-in-law, Barb Krohn of Elkton; 12 grandchildren, David, Randy, Brenda, Rebecca, Curtis, Carolyn, Charlie, Heidi, Elizabeth, Paula, Michelle, and Dale; 23 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Naomi Shuart and Herlanda McPhail, both of Bad Axe; and a sister-in-law, Onalee Ewald of Elkton. Preceding her in death was a son, Bruce, and her siblings, Luella Young, Clayton Ewald, Fred Ewald, and Helen Ewald. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 2, 2003 at the Elkton United Methodist Church. The Rev. Douglas Bassett, Hartland Hospice Chaplain, will officiate with burial in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton. Visitation will be at 1 p.m. Sunday at the church. Memorials may be given to Hartland Hospice or the Elkton United Methodist Church. Those who wish may sign the guest book at www.CFCelkton.com.
