

Vancouver PCG and POLO- Vancouver Host a Meeting of the Employment and Social Development Canada and Filworkers

06 October 2018 – Labor Assistant Jesus Emmanuel Samonte (standing, leftmost) of POLO-Vancouver facilitates the meeting of the Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) with Filipino workers at the Conference Room of the Philippine Consulate General. The ESDC is a federal government agency in charge of the labor market and the Temporary Foreign Worker Program through which employers in Canada are able to hire foreign workers. In Vancouver for the launch of the Migrant Worker Support Network in B.C., they took the opportunity to engage with various foreign workers, Filipinos included.

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (standing, 4R), Consul Arlene T. Magno (3R), Labor Attaché Margarita Eugenia Victorino (5R), Welfare Officer Lilia de Guzman (leftmost), and Assistant Labor Attaché Violeta Buenaventura (2L), pose with the Filipino workers and representatives from ESDC in Ottawa, Mr. Philippe Masse (standing, center), Director-General of Labor Market Analysis, Ms. Donna Blois (4L), Director of Access to Information and Privacy, and Ms. Luce Galinas (5L), Manager.