Mass & Event announcements

April 26th—11am—Scripture Study—Parish Hall

May 5th—Hospitality after 11am Mass

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday and continues until Saturday, the eve of Divine Mercy Sunday. We will pray the Novena and chaplet half hour before Mass this and next weekend. There are pamphlets in the foyer so you can also pray at home. This is a powerful novena requested by Jesus himself to St. Faustina.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord has truly risen as He said, Alleluia."

This is our traditional greeting of the Easter Sunday morning, the entire Lenten journey was leading us to this great event—the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the death he endured on Good Friday. Jesus Christ now lives forever.

The Holy Week that started on Palm Sunday-with the commemoration of Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

Holy Thursday with the institution of the Eucharist and the Ministerial Priesthood Good Friday—celebration of the Passion of our Lord.

Easter Vigil—celebration of our Salvation as traced from the Scriptures to the Resurrection of Jesus. This leads us to the Easter Joy as witnessed by the first disciples—Mary Magdalene that had gone to the tomb in the early morning hours.

Mary Magdalene and the other disciples who were grief stricken and saddened with the cruel and painful death of Jesus were filled with Joy of the glorious resurrection. The Lord is truly risen. The same Joy was accompanied with a series of appearances of the Risen Lord at the same time commissioning them to share the same to his disciples.

Let our lives be radiated by the Joy of the Risen Lord as we commit ourselves to be heralds of this great news of great Joy—Christ lives in the Sacrament and His Word and Church—the Body of Christ.

*Have a Blessed Easter,
Rev. Fr. Michael Mugomba*

Scripture Study—There will be a Bible Study meeting the last Friday of each month. The meeting will take place in the Parish Hall. Everyone is welcome. Come, read, study and discuss the bible. Next meeting April 27th at 11am.
