AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

Tannenbaum Forest Opens Friday

The elves have been busy for days and days getting the Festhalle ready for Amana's Tannenbaum Forest. How many volunteers does it take? Well, there are 60 live trees to decorate, the 17 foot tall Christmas pyramid to set up and get turning, the entire barn to decorate and 41 volunteer shifts to fill.

It requires at least 82 volunteers simply to keep the forest open. Plus consider the volunteers needed to open and shut the forest each day and to haul in the supplies needed such as propane for the heaters, snacks for St. Nick's Café and so on. A rough estimate is that it takes about 120 people to volunteer there time and some volunteer many hours indeed.

Yes, it takes a village to make our Tannenbaum Forest happen but what a beautiful Christmas gift we give to eastern Iowa while successfully fund raising for the University of Iowa Children's Hospital. Last year a check for $10,000 was given to the hospital to benefit the patient's support program providing toys, games, crafts and comfort items to children and their families.

The forest opens on Friday, Nov. 29 at 11 a.m. It will be open until 7 p.m. Santa will be there 1 - 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 30 the forest is open 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. and Santa is there 11 a.m. - 6 p.m. Sunday the forest is 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. and Santa is there 11 - 3. Yes, you may take all the photos you wish of Santa.

Prelude Weekend is Almost Here Century of Dolls and Toys at the Museum

You can preview some of the Prelude fun to come this weekend. Take your family to see the Century of Dolls and Toys at the Amana Heritage Museum. The museum will be open Thanksgiving Friday and Saturday. This magical exhibit features many dolls from the collections of Bonnie Kinnick and Jon and Darian Childers. These range from 19th century china dolls to Barbie dolls from the 1970's. Several homemade Amana communal era dollhouses and yes, an entire American Girl dollhouse add to this colorful exhibit that's sure to engage young and old.

Still Time to Book your Christmas Cabaret Seats, A NEW Prelude Event

Here's something entirely new for our Prelude celebration - a dinner theatre at Price Creek Event Center featuring a bountiful holiday supper, plus a special performance of classic Christmas melodies and iconic, musical showtunes. Tickets are $35 and they include the holiday buffet supper, the show, tip and tax.

Katie Colletta and Kent Reynolds will star in this entertaining tribute to the Christmas music we all love. Just four shows are planned, 5:30 p.m. on Dec. 5, Dec. 6, Dec. 7 and Dec. 8. To reserve seats call the Old Creamery box office at 319-622-6292.

What are we Thankful For?

Thanksgiving is here and so we asked a few neighbors in the Amana Colonies to see what it was they were especially grateful for this year.

"I'm thankful that the trumpeter swans have spent so much time on the Lily Lake this fall. It's just been fun to watch them as I take my walk around the bike trail. Well, I guess I should add I'm really thankful for the bike trail!"

"I'm thankful for the staff at Colonial Manor . . . they take such good care of my mother."

"Well I'm grateful that we have the warmer weather back at least for now. That snowfall in November about killed me! I'm not one for snow!"

"I'm grateful for all the folks who put up trees in the Tannebaum Forest. Every year we take our grandkids and they just love it. I know it takes a lot of work so I'm grateful."

"That the Hawks won the last two games?"

"My wife. She's the best mother, the best wife, the best friend. Yes, I'm really thankful for all that she does. But don't tell her I don't want her to get a big head over it!"

"My daycare providers at the Amana daycare. I would be up a creek without them. They love the kids and take such good care of them!"

"The Amana Library. I spend my winter reading books from the library."

"Oh I suppose my whole family. They are the best!"

"My son's teacher. She really goes above and beyond and I appreciate it so much."

"For the new Fareway in Tiffin. It has literally made my life easier."

"For my neighbors in South Amana. . . they have been so good to us."

"For our school here in town. My kids love it there."

"Gee, what am I thankful for? About a thousand things. But I guess I'll start with coffee. Yes, I'm thankful for coffee. And my husband. He's a keeper."

"That my kids love to come home for holidays. And that I don't have to cook for thanksgiving. My wife does all the cooking and everyone brings something."

"For America. I know we have a lot of problems right now. But in this country we know we are going to resolve them if we work together."

The Amana Society Bulletin is published by the Amana Print Shop for the Amana Society Inc. and distributed free of charge to readers as a public service to the Amana Community.

FEATHERS IN THE WIND

I will be the first to say I am a big couch potato, and these days my teeth are grinding down to the gums.

I am so sick and tired of the political commercials I could scream. Some of these “wonderful” organizations people have put together - I would really like to know what they do.

Do they manufacture things for the government? Do they build cars? Do they help the less fortunate? Where are they located anyway?

If I hear one more ad promoting any candidate anywhere I will scream, so many are saying the same thing and they follow one after another like lemmings over a cliff. GRRRRR.

To make matters worse, the election is barely less than a year away, and before we know it we will be seeing all sorts of ads for all the different layers of government.

Now, it has been said that being first brings in a lot of money into Iowa, and while that may be true, the majority of Iowans stay home on caucus night but still have to suffer through the ads.

I do have some suggestions. All the people running for Congress should serve in the military first, and we need to have term limits, and also commercial limits, say 50 for each one.
