Wisdom Circle Constellations

GAYE DONALDSON & DAWN EAGLE WOMAN

Friday 22nd – Saturday 23rd March 2019

10 am to 5:30 pm | £290
Location: Bristol

The constellating approach is a simple yet profound method that can be used to shed new light on the areas of unhappiness and distress in our lives. Working in a safe and nurturing environment, a constellation reveals a fuller story of unspoken dynamics in our family, friendships, community or professional life. Together they weave together a unique experience of Gaye's systemic constellation work and Dawn Eagle's particular magic, which is distinctive and profound.

Constellation work addresses a wide range of issues including:

- Fractured and difficult relationships between couples and family members
- Relational and professional problems at work
- Chronic illness, addictions, depression, lack of motivation
- Bereavement, loss, suicidal tendencies
- Adoption, abortion, illegitimacy, incest, rape
- Ancestral issues, family secrets, ruptures, divorce, violence
- Life changes and choices, assessing strategies and solutions
- Finding and feeling our own resources and strength

Dawn Eagle Woman

is a profound healer and facilitator. Guided by the feminine creative spirit, she draws on her own deep spiritual experience and a vast array of knowledge, ranging from the Arts to Psychoanalytic Theory, Spiritual Psychology, Shamanic Healing and Divination. Dawn studied Jungian psychology and religion for many years and holds an AA, BFA, and MFA in Fine Arts, and in 1997 received her Doctor of Divinity. She has been a dance instructor and taught sculpture at the University of Wyoming. Since 1994 she devotes all her time to healing. Dawn's hands were activated by a near-death experience at the age of 25, and her path as a healer has taken her through many levels of refinement. She was given the name Dawn Eagle Woman, Ahnpo Wambli Win, in 1982, by a Medicine Man, Tate Wakapa Wambli. In 1994 she was honored by the Hopi Princess and given the name Kwaahu Wiwiti, White Eagle. Dawn has also trained with Bert and Sophie Hellinger in systemic constellations.

Gaye Donaldson

Gaye Donaldson is a constellations practitioner and registered BACP counsellor, who has worked in the community and the private sector. She became a student of systemic constellations in 1994, training extensively in both family and organisational constellations in the UK and abroad. She has worked as a facilitator and trainer of the work since 2005. Gaye is the Managing Director of the Centre for Systemic Constellations (www.thescs.net) and is on the teaching faculty for both the Foundation and Professional Trainings. She also works with the constellation approach in film and theatre, and is a trainer for 'Healing the Wounds of History', an organisation that brings new perspectives to conflict resolution in the Middle East. Gaye is a mother and grandmother and lives in Bruton, Somerset.
